7 PCHS musicians in All-State Festival

Seven students from Port Chester High School will participate in the annual New York State School Music Association's Area All-State Music Festival, to be held at the Performing Arts Center at Purchase College on Friday, Nov. 12 at 8:00 p.m.

High school musicians from Westchester County were selected for the Area All-State Festival based on their audition at last spring's NYSSMA Solo Evaluation Festival. Students will attend three rehearsals in the weeks prior to their performance.

Performing with the All-State Band are Veronica Tornini, piccolo and flute; and Michael Caparelli, tenor saxophone. Their school instrumental music teacher is Robert Vitti.

Participating in the All-State Mixed Chorus are Valerie Tornini, alto; Juan Aguilar, tenor; and Mark Nowotnik, bass. Singing with the Women's Chorus are Krystle Robbins, soprano; and Brittany Carter, alto. Linda Penney is their school vocal music teacher.

Conductors for the performing groups are Stephen Peterson, band; Yoichi Udagawa, orchestra; Pamela Perry, Women's Chorus; and Richard Nickerson, Mixed Chorus.

Concert tickets are available for $15.00 from the Purchase College box office. For information, call 251-6200.
