

People

6 Port Chester musicians chosen for all-county bands

Six students from Port Chester Middle School and High School will participate in the annual Westchester County School Music Association's (WCSMA) All-County Band Festival, to be held at Purchase College on Sunday, March 12.

Sixth graders Christian Mora, bass clarinet; and Artur Szerejko, trumpet; performed solos for adjudication at the Dec. 10 instrumental auditions, held in Armonk. Mora and Szerejko will perform with the Elementary (Grades 4-6) All-County Band. Their school music teacher is Linda McDermott.

Eighth graders Holly Nowotnik, French horn; and Taylor Quinn, mallets, students of Ken Kraut, will be performing in the Intermediate (Grades 7-9) All-County Band along with ninth graders Marissa Ruggiero, clarinet; and Joseph Rivera, tuba; students of Robert Vitti. These students auditioned for placement last spring at the New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) Solo Evaluation Festival.

Conductors for the All-County performances are as follows: Elementary Band – Jeff Smith; Intermediate Band – Karen Froehlich. The All-County Band program begins at 4:00 p.m. Tickets ($15.00) may be purchased at the Purchase College box office. For information, call 251-6200.