

Seventh grader Chris Salguero plays baritone horn with the Port Chester Middle School Band which opened the Port Chester High School "Preview of Champions" home band competition at Ryan Stadium last Sunday, Sept. 25.

The Port Chester High School Marching Band presents its "Phantom of the Opera" field show for exhibition only as the final performance of the day.

Music fills Ryan Stadium at home band competition

Photos by Jananne Abel

Mark Morano, 8, of West William Street dresses in his brother L.P.'s band uniform after the competition. L.P. is a freshman at PCHS.

The Garden City Marching Band takes the field in competition with its repertoire from "The Incredibles."

The brass section of the Fairlawn High School Marching Band gathers for a portion of the band's "Festival of Light" show.